

Ingemar Will Visit Valhalla

Ingemar Johansson, Swedish heavyweight champion of the world, will make a public appearance Sunday, Sept. 27, at Valhalla, a new area of homesites near Bothell, it has been announced by K. A. Sanwick, Jr., president of Valhalla, Inc.

Johansson will arrive at Seattle-Tacoma airport on Northwest Airlines flight at 9:35 p.m., Saturday, Sept. 26. He will leave Seattle at 10:25 Sunday night.

He will be presented the first deed to a Valhalla homesite, Sanwick said.

It will be the champion's first appearance in the United States since he returned to Sweden after his title bout with Floyd Patterson.

The champion will be flown to Seattle from Stockholm. Scandinavian Airlines will bring him to New York, and he will be flown to Seattle with a stop in Detroit by Northwest Airlines.

Assisting Valhalla, Inc. with negotiations for Johansson's appearance was Jack Ballard, northwest sales and service representative, and Arne Ewald, manager of Scandinavian sales in the northwest.

Ewald used a vacation trip to Oslo to carry Valhalla promotional material to Johansson and to make the invitation personally for Valhalla, Inc.

The receipt of a deed to a Valhalla homesite was suggested by Johansson.

Sanwick said today that Valhalla will be open to the public on Sunday, Sept. 27, so that as many Seattle-area people as possible may meet the champion. Appropriate reception ceremonies are being planned.

Johansson's Seattle visit will be the first of many public appearances he will make in the United States in the next few weeks, according to information forwarded to Valhalla, Inc. by Scandinavian Airlines. He rearranged his schedule for the Seattle visit.

"We are extremely happy that Johansson was able to appear at Valhalla," Sanwick said. "He truly represents the heroic Viking spirit which is the theme of Valhalla."

"It is particularly appropriate that Johansson be presented a deed to a Valhalla homesite. He is, after all, a successful contractor in Sweden."

MAN OF THE HOUR - Grabbing the limelight, even away from the competitive Mr. "K", is K. A. Sanwick, Jr., President of Valhalla, Inc., who has staged a promotion for the opening of an exclusive residential development that has never before been equaled in the history of the Pacific Northwest. Bashfully he permits Sandra Baird, representing the Bothell Chamber of Commerce, to pin an orchid on his jacket. - Citizen Photo

INTERNATIONAL ASSIST - Town Clerk Bill Caldwell was having troubles pinning on the Nordic bib provided by Valhalla to special guests for the Nordic feast officially opening Valhalla. Quick to assist Mr. Caldwell were "Miss Sweden", Maria Louisa Ekstrom, and "Miss Norway", Jorunn Kristiansen. The young ladies flew in from Hollywood to help celebrate the opening of the exclusive residential development. - Citizen Photo

VOL. XLVIII

Open

Open house at the newly completed 17-unit apartment house in Bothell, scheduled for Friday, Sept. 25, 3 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Owners Bob Hasbrou and Bernard Harrington are extending a special invitation to the area to visit the new structure before tenants move in. Two of the apartments are especially furnished by Mohn for the occasion.

Started in late April, building is now ready for occupancy as workmen put final touches on the two buildings.

The seventeen units are divided into one two-bedroom apartment, fourteen one-room units, and two studios. Each of the units have approximately 625 sq. feet.

Completely modern in design, the structure makes use of masonry and stone and a

Ingemar Will Visit Valhalla

Ingemar Johansson, Swedish heavyweight champion of the world, will make a public appearance Sunday, Sept. 27, at Valhalla, a new area of homesites near Bothell, it has been announced by K. A. Sanwick, Jr., president of Valhalla, Inc.

Johansson will arrive at Seattle-Tacoma airport on Northwest Airlines flight at 9:35 p.m., Saturday, Sept. 26. He will leave Seattle at 10:25 Sunday night.

He will be presented the first deed to a Valhalla homesite, Sanwick said.

It will be the champion's first appearance in the United States since he returned to Sweden after his title bout with Floyd Patterson.

The champion will be flown to Seattle from Stockholm. Scandinavian Airlines will bring him to New York, and he will be flown to Seattle with a stop in Detroit by Northwest Airlines.

Assisting Valhalla, Inc. with negotiations for Johansson's appearance was Jack Ballard, northwest sales and service representative, and Arne Ewald, manager of Scandinavian sales in the northwest.

Ewald used a vacation trip to Oslo to carry Valhalla promotional material to Johansson and to make the invitation personally for Valhalla, Inc.

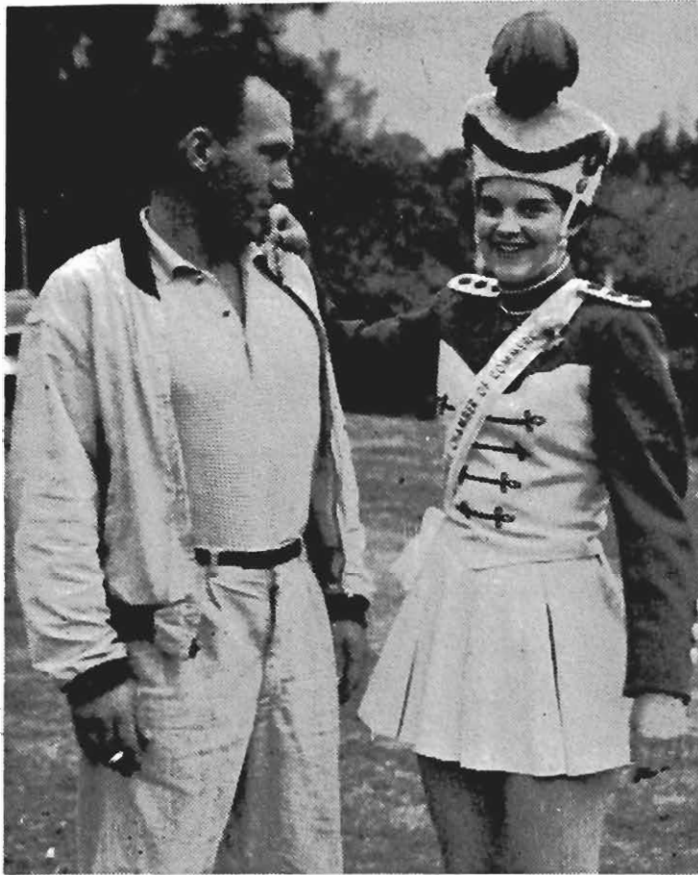

The receipt of a deed to a Valhalla homesite was suggested by Johansson.

Sanwick said today that Valhalla will be open to the public on Sunday, Sept. 27, so that as many Seattle-area people as possible may meet the champion. Appropriate reception ceremonies are being planned.

Johansson's Seattle visit will be the first of many public appearances he will make in the United States in the next few weeks, according to information forwarded to Valhalla, Inc. by Scandinavian Airlines. He rearranged his schedule for the Seattle visit.

"We are extremely happy that Johansson was able to appear at Valhalla," Sanwick said. "He truly represents the heroic Viking spirit which is the theme of Valhalla."

"It is particularly appropriate that Johansson be presented a deed to a Valhalla homesite. He is, after all, a successful contractor in Sweden."

MAN OF THE HOUR - Grabbing the limelight, even away from the competitive Mr. "K", is K. A. Sanwick, Jr., President of Valhalla, Inc., who has staged a promotion for the opening of an exclusive residential development that has never before been equaled in the history of the Pacific Northwest. Bashfully he permits Sandra Baird, representing the Bothell Chamber of Commerce, to pin an orchid on his jacket. - Citizen Photo

INTERNATIONAL ASSIST - Town Clerk Bill Caldwell was having troubles pinning on the Nordic bib provided by Valhalla to special guests for the Nordic feast officially opening Valhalla. Quick to assist Mr. Caldwell were "Miss Sweden", Maria Louisa Ekstrom, and "Miss Norway", Jorunn Kristiansen. The young ladies flew in from Hollywood to help celebrate the opening of the exclusive residential development. - Citizen Photo

THE B
DEVOTED

VOL. XLVIII

Open House

Open house at the Pines, newly completed 17-unit apartment house in Bothell, is scheduled for Friday, Sept. 25 from 3 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Owners Bob HasBrouck and Bernard Harrington are extending a special invitation to the area to visit the new structure before tenants move in. Two of the apartments will be especially furnished by Jones & Mohn for the occasion.

Started in late April, the building is now ready for occupancy as workmen put the final touches on the two-story building.

The seventeen units are divided into one two-bedroom apartment, fourteen one-bedroom units, and two bachelor apartments. Each of the units have approximately 625 square feet.

Completely modern in design, the structure makes use of masonry and stone and a generous

Puget Pla

First in a series of five reports by Puget Planners, Inc. on a study and comprehensive plan for the Bothell and Northshore area is appearing today as a supplement to the Bothell Citizen.

Citizen subscribers may save each of the supplements and combine them to make a full report for future reference as well as a complete documentation of the things and nature of the area now and the future prospects for it.

John Nordmark, President of

Busy Weekend Ahead for Band

A busy weekend is ahead for Bernie Ackerman's Bothell High School Band.

They will be presenting a half-time pageant at the Bothell-Edmonds game Friday night entitled "Vacations".

On Saturday, Sept. 26, they will be one of six bands participating in the University of Washington Band Day.

Rehearsals for the band ceremonies will commence at 8:30 and continue until 11:45.

Class of '34 Will Hold Gabfest Friday

The class of 1934 will hold a reunion Friday evening, Sept. 25, at the Bothell high school cafeteria according to Fred Klein, secretary of the class.

Reunions have been scheduled every five years.

Plans call for the gathering at 6 o'clock on Friday evening for refreshments and a gabfest. Then the entire group will attend the high school football game.

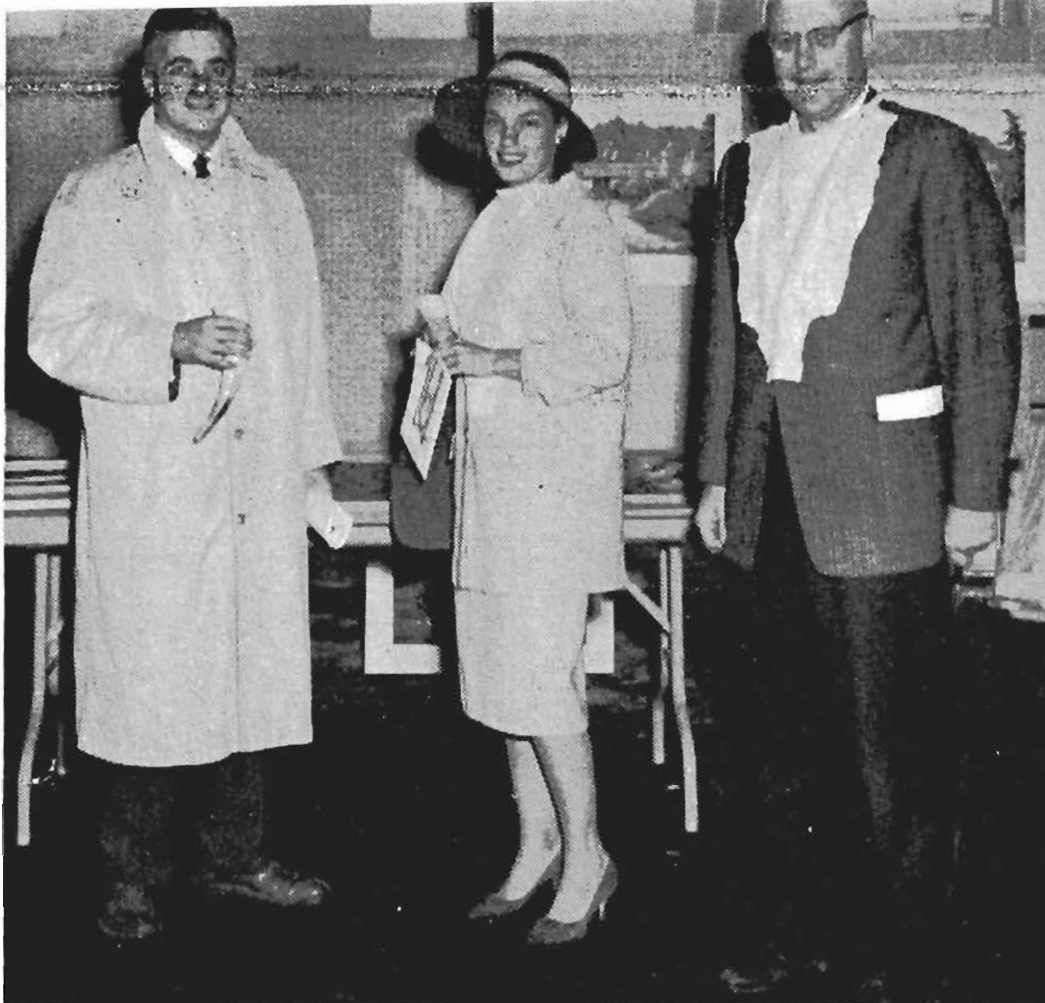

There were 42 graduates in 1934 and 30 of them are expected to attend the reunion.

APPROVE REZONE

An application by Dr. John Herseth for a rezone from residential to commercial of the area not already residential between 98th Ave. N.E., Everett Way and Bothell Way has been set for approval by both the Town Council and the Planning Commission. City Attorney Gordon Livengood was instructed to initiate proper notice and a final hearing.

Fluke May Mov

Jeff Fluke of Fluke Metal Products, who has made application to construct a new office building and factory at the location of the present factory, Tuesday night told the Bothell Town Council that indecision on comprehensive planning was prompting him to consider a new location for the factory.

PAINTINGS ON EXHIBIT - Mr. and Mrs. Hal Lipetz of Kenmore and Bud Ericksen of Bothell view the paintings of Valhalla on display in the huge air-bubble house erected on the spot that will eventually house Odin Hall, the clubhouse for the new residential development.

- Citizen Photo

ROASTING THE PIG - Huge U of W football players, costumed as Vikings, none of the roasting area. Hundreds of special guests enjoyed the Nordic feast served the gardens in and around Bothell.

Mrs. C. D. Corbin is president of the Bothell Garden Club, with Mrs. Robert Rolfe, secretary.

GOP Women to Hear Don Evans

Don Evans, state representative from the 43rd District will be the featured speaker at the next meeting of the Bothell Unit of Associated Republican Women.

The meeting will be held at 8:30 p.m. Monday, Sept. 28 at the home of Mrs. W. E. Waldo, 116 Simonds Road N.E., in the Moorlands.

Bothell Hardware in New Building

Mike Phillips moved his Bothell Hardware Store into its new building over the weekend.

Phillips is planning a formal opening for the weekend of Oct. 2 and 3.

The Factory Site

A detailed comprehensive plan had been adopted.

Fluke was assured by the council that the final comprehensive plan would serve as a pattern that in the long run would be a protection for his industrial operation and that there would be no indecision after adoption of a comprehensive plan.

look into the Bothell water system.

invited to attend the colonial pennons at the Bothell State Bank, or the offices of Powell, Johnson & Livengood.

WANDERING MINSTRELS - In the tradition of the early Vikings, wandering Norse minstrels serenade outside the huge air bubble headquarters of Valhalla, erected to simulate ancient Odin Hall, which eventually will be the location of the Valhalla Clubhouse.

- Citizen Photo